

Student Notices: Monday, February 8, 2010

Lunch Monday: Shephard's Pie

Lunch Tuesday: Macaroni & Cheese

GUIDANCE: The US Marines Recruiter will be in Guidance on Wed, 2/10 at 9:30am to speak with interested students.

DISMISSALS: Freshmen Boys Basketball @ 1:45pm to travel to Windham HS

Juniors - Armed Services Vocational Assessment Battery (ASVAB) Presentation. Tuesday's Advisory period for juniors will be dedicated to a presentation by Mr. Chuck Shaw, Department of Defense Educational Specialist, who will be discussing the ASVAB and the Career Exploration Program in the LHT. This program is an excellent opportunity for students to learn about how their aptitudes match up against people who are working in various occupations. In addition, they will be able to earn 20 pts toward their mandatory Career Education half credit if they choose to take the test (scheduled for blocks 1 and 2 on Wed., 2/17) and come to the follow up interpretive session in March.

HELPING HANDS FOR HAITI will continue to collect all this week. Drop off your donated items in the café during lunch or in the main office.

We are still collecting wide-tooth combs, nail clippers and 16x28 hand towels. Please do not give toothbrushes or bandaids.

** ALL DONATED ITEMS SHOULD BE NEW AND IN ORIGINAL WRAPPERS*****

IF YOU DONATE AN ITEM OR CASH, YOU WILL RECEIVE A HAND FOR THE CAFETERIA WALL

FOR ALL STUDENTS IN MR. ELLIOTT'S GLOBAL LITERATURE CLASSES LAST SEMESTER:

IF YOU WANT TO GO TO HEAR GREG MORTENSON, AUTHOR OF "THREE CUPS OF TEA," AT KEENE STATE COLLEGE ON FRIDAY MARCH 5TH YOU MUST SIGN UP IN THE MAIN OFFICE IMMEDIATELY.

Students interested in joining the cast of the spring musical, Cabaret, must audition for parts today or Wednesday, Feb. 10th. Auditions will take place in the chorus room from seven to nine in the evening. For more information, sign up on the sheets on the Drama Bulletin Board, just outside the English Dept Office or see Mr. Clark.

QUARTER 3 PARKING NOTICE: All Students who have parking privileges should have the Quarter 3 Parking Pass on their vehicle at this time. All other vehicles parked in the ConVal lot during school hours are subject to police tag and towing.

Want to play improv theatre games like on the TV Show, "Whose Line is it, Anyway?" The ConVal ActingOut group meets in Room 224 every Thursday, from 2:30-4:10 (the start time is new), and does just that. Come by this Thursday, and check it out!

Do you enjoy fishing? Want to learn how to cast and tie flies? The NH Trout Unlimited Council is having another Trout Camp this summer. This is coed, open to ages 14 -17. We had a Trout Camper last year who had an awesome time! For more information either see Mr. Elkavitch in Room 101 or go to www.monadnocktu.org and click on the trout camp link on the left.
